

Week 138 w/c 30/6/19

Monday: Luke 11:29-54. In saying that “your eye is the lamp of your body” in v34, Jesus is talking about our view of the world. An attitude of heart and mind that is immersed in the light of God’s word must be the lens through which we view the world and make our life choices. How well are you fulfilling the direction of v35, in the light of this truth?

Tuesday: Numbers 2:1-34. The tent of meeting was right in the middle of the camp of the tribes and also when they were on the move (v17). God always wants to be at the centre of our lives and of his church. How can you take time out in the middle of your busy-ness today to meet with Jesus, and keep him at the centre of all you do?

Wednesday: 2 Kings 3:1-27. Notice the link between music and hearing from God in v15. There is no doubt that music can be a help to us in worship, and also in entering the prophetic realm. How can you use music or singing more effectively in your devotional times as you seek to hear what God wants to say to you?

Thursday: Proverbs 17:10-18. Which of these Proverbs is most appropriate for you at the present time? Do you need to adjust your attitude in the light of these principles? Do you need to change your behaviour? Are there principles here that apply to your home, or work situation, or to our national scene? Read these words carefully with the “desire to get wisdom” (v16)

Friday: Ezekiel 6:1-14. "Then you (or "they") will know that I am the LORD" appears around 50 times in this book. God used his judgements to get people’s attention and reveal something of his power. What has God allowed to happen to you in order to get your attention? Have you learned the lesson of your circumstances and deepened your knowledge of God?

Weekend: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. These verses are among the clearest teachings of the New Testament about the Second coming of the Lord Jesus. As always, we should interpret the more obscure passages in the light of the truths in the clear passages. What clear truths are taught here? List them. How do these truths encourage you – for that is their purpose (see v17)?
