

Week 178 – w/c 5/4/20

Monday: John 5:16-30. Appropriately as Easter approaches, this passage makes reference to four “resurrections”. The “resurrection” when you come to faith in Christ and are born again in v24. Christ’s resurrection (he has life in himself) v26. And then in vv28,29 we see the resurrection to eternal life for believers or to hell for unbelievers. Thank God for v24!

Tuesday: Numbers 34:1-29. Notice that God allocates the boundaries before the Israelites go into Canaan. Some promises must be grasped and appropriated by faith, before we ever see the reality. What is God calling you to accept and believe by faith at the present time? Pray it into being!

Wednesday: 1 Chronicles 18:1-17. v14 tells us about David’s leadership. He did what was just and right for all his people – even if some of them wanted things done differently! Pray for our Prime Minister and Government, as well as those who lead you at work and at Church, that they may seek to follow David’s example.

Thursday: Psalm 119:97-104. Have you learned to meditate on God’s word? Why not ask God to bring a verse to your mind today and mull it over in your mind throughout the day, asking God to give you a greater insight into it’s meaning and application in your life? You might be surprised at your own insights!

Friday: Ezekiel 44:1-31. Notice v4. In his vision, Ezekiel “saw” God’s glory, and fell facedown. In scripture, God’s glory is manifest in different ways. Sometimes “seen”, sometimes more “heard” (Deut 5:24, Ex 34:6). Being unable to stand in God’s presence is something many have experienced. Have you had an experience of His glory in the past? Seek to know his presence and glory again in these days!

Weekend: Hebrews 3:1-6. How do you “fix” your thoughts on Jesus? Do you greet him every morning? Give thanks for food? Make worship a priority? Consciously do your work “for Him”? Consciously give generously out of your income? Talk to him in prayer in spare moments throughout the day? Meditate on Scripture? Are there other ways you can involve Him in your life and fix your thoughts on him? What one extra thing will you do this week to help you in this?
